

Institute of Waste Management of Southern Africa

COOPERATION WITH COMMERCIAL CONFERENCE ORGANISERS

Whilst acknowledging the fact that the Institute does not have a monopoly in arranging waste management conferences.

and

Realising that the Institute cannot prescribe to its members which conferences to attend or to support, but

Recognising the need to protect the members of the Institute, in particular, and the waste management profession in general, against conference fatigue, over exploitation, and abuse Council of the Institute will endeavour to:

- 1 Do everything legally necessary to safeguard the intellectual and other properties of the Institute.
- 2 Call upon its members to carefully consider invitations to participate or attend conferences arranged by commercial organisations.
- 3 Not to endorse any commercial conference, neither to assist them in any way or to receive any rewards, pecuniary or in kind, from such organisations.
